

II Summer School
Researching with marginalised communities
Summer School Programme

Faculty of Political Science – Room number 3
 September 19-21, 2022

Day 1 (Monday 19th September)
10.00 - 12.00	Student Presentations	Challenges and Strategies in Accessing Education for Migrant Children in Europe Ljiljana Cumura (PhD candidate) Child labor by unaccompanied children from the migrant/refugee population Violeta Markovic (PhD candidate)
12.00-13.00	Lunch (FPN restaurant)
13.00 - 15.30	Workshop	Working collaboratively with and for young migrants Majella Kilkey &amp; Ryan Powell
15.30-16.30	Meeting about Sheffield visit (only for MIGREC members travelling for a study visit)

Day 2 (Tuesday 20th September)
10.00 - 12.00	Student Presentations	The quality of life of refugees and asylum seekers in asylum centers in the Republic of Serbia [online] Danijela Pavlovic (PhD candidate) Policies of the integration of forced migrants into the labor market - a case study of the Republic of Greece [online] Natasa Milosevic (PhD candidate) Gender role attitudes among migrants from Afghanistan Ivana Jovanovic (MA candidate)
12.00-13.00	Lunch (FPN restaurant)
13.00 - 16.00	Workshop	Bridging the researcher-researched binary: learning from embedded research by and with European Roma populations Olga Fuseini &amp; Lois Orton
Day 3 (Wednesday 21st September)
10.00 - 12.00	Student Presentations	Affirmative measures in higher education targeting Roma population in Serbia Jelena Birmancevic (PhD candidate) The social consequences of care migration to Western Europe for local communities and its women in Serbia Svenja Fischbach (PhD candidate)
12.00-13.00	Lunch (FPN restaurant)
13.00 – 16.00	Workshop	Everyday Bordering in the UK: Using creative qualitative methods when working with families that have migrated Julie Walsh

Coffees/tees will be served each day at 14:30